

Discovery Toys

The Premier Educational Toy Company

The NASA Exchange is pleased to announce the return of Discovery Toys to the Center.

Featuring high quality toys and games to help children learn,
Discovery Toys will be on-site in the lobby of building 4203
November 16-18 from 8:30-4:00 each day.

“Happy, healthy, self-assured kids. That's our goal and the driving force behind every choice we make for our products. We search for the best the world has to offer, and when we can't find what we want, we create it toys, books, games and software that meet the needs of the whole child and help each one be the best they can be!”

Samples of many of the toys will be on hand for your perusal.
Payment by cash or check will be accepted with credit cards being accepted for special orders.
